

FIGHTING AT DOUAI MAY DECIDE ISSUE

Allies Making Desperate Attack on the German Right Wing

ive troops from India, which recently landed at Marseilles, has left that port for the north.

"British ships have arrived at Lubeck, probably destined to transport Portuguese troops. Portugal's co-operation in the war and the imminent mobilization of the Portuguese forces is believed to have been ordered on demand of the British government."

Italy May Be Involved.

London, Oct. 5.—If the report coming from Rome—that Italian sailors have occupied Ajaccio—is true, Italy has taken action which will almost certainly involve her. Ajaccio, the Gibraltar of the Adriatic, has long been coveted by both Italy and Austria. During the war between Italy and Turkey, when Ajaccio belonged to Turkey, it was the scene of a daring exploit by the Italian navy under the Duke of the Abruzzi. The jealousy of Austria was at once aroused and as a result, an agreement was reached whereby Turkey's European positions were made immune from attack.

Expert Predicts Long War.

London, Oct. 5.—The military expert of the Times today says:

"However much we may bend back the German right wing and relieve Antwerp, whatever confidence we have that the shock of the Russian masses in the east will prove decisive, we must not entertain the slightest delusions regarding the hard and trying conditions which await all the allies in the future in operating against Germany reduced to the defensive."

"Germany is still united. Her resources grow apace. All her main armaments, all her arsenals are working at full pressure. Her fleets will strike when the hour comes, probably in co-operation with the army."

"The line of the Aisne when forced, may prove to be only one of many similar lines prepared in the rear of it. It may take a very long time for the allies to compel Germany to feel a weakness. It therefore devolves upon the allies to look forward to a long war."

Germany is Well Prepared.

Berlin, Oct. 5.—Germany's position economically and financially is such as will enable her to carry the war to a successful conclusion, in the opinion of Vice-Chancellor Clemens Delbrück. The country cannot be starved out, declared the vice-chancellor today.

The unemployment is steadily decreasing with from 5,000,000 to 6,000,000 men in the field, he said. Many industries were working overtime on war orders and measures had been taken to divert labor from idle branches to busy departments until now the unemployed number only from 6 to 7 per cent of the work force of the country.

Costs France $7,000,000 a Day.

Paris, Oct. 5.—The war is costing France $7,000,000 a day, Minister of Finance Alexandre Ribot announced today that the outlay for the first six days of the conflict had been $42,000,000.

M. Ribot gives an interview to the Temps on the situation in the East of France. He says that on October 1 the bank had $412,000,000 in cash, which was $52,500,000 more than it had on the eve of the war.

"France is far from having exhausted her resources and when the hour comes she will find the money for a new loan, which at present is unnecessary," he said.

CRACOW IS NOT YET INVESTED BY RUSSIANS

sign equipment is far superior to the German.

The shortness of road from all field equipment constructed especially with the heavy condition of the roads in view, have made it possible to move the Russian troops, although slowly.

The air route report, however, that wherever the Germans cut off the main roads their route for transport has immediately been moved, and in the fighting of last week they have lost a great many guns, simply because they could not get them into the mud, neither horses nor traction engines could move them.

Much Depends on Outcome.

To England, the battle at Cracow will be considered of far greater importance than the long-drawn-out conflict now in progress in France. If the Russians can overwhelm the combined Austro-German army, the way will be opened for an overwhelming advance on Berlin.

Germany is making a final desperate stand. She has massed the flower of her southern armies here. Every man from the active line of France that could be spared has been sent to the east. The great central fortresses have been robbed of their garrisons, who have been replaced by the older classes of the Landwehr. The flower of the Landwehr has also been called to make an impregnable battle line from the standpoint of Germany. The Kaiser himself is in supreme command of the movements, aided by Chief of Staff von Moltke, and the counsel of Field Marshal von der Goltz, who originated the secret defenses along the Russian frontier has been sought.

Germany Stakes All on Battle.

Every bit of information received here shows that Germany will stake everything on this battle. She hopes decisively to defeat Russia and to show that Russia is no more a factor in this war than she was in Manchuria. A decisive defeat of the czar's forces, it is believed in Berlin, according to well authenticated information reaching here, might result in a partial patching up of the differences between Russia and Germany, as the czar would certainly face a revolution at home if his army were to be overwhelmingly defeated at any stage of the present war.

Acid Test For Russians.

The battle of Cracow will apply the acid test to the Russian army. It will demonstrate whether Russia is the active, potent fighting force that her admirers claim she is or whether she is in no more than a help in the attempt to crush Germany. It is a new and untried Russian army that is in the field. The forces for outnumber all others. But whether the troops are to have the energetic direction of competent officers or are to be handled by blunderers, as was the case in the Russo-Jap war, this battle, now commencing, must decide.

Russians Aiming at Berlin.

London, Oct. 5.—Undoubtedly great events are pending. Critics here incline to the view that the German operations in Suwalki and in other Russian provinces to the north are merely feints to cover the main strength near Cracow.

All the news indicates that Russia is successfully following the plans of her general staff to paralyze German initiative along the Prussian-Poland frontier while hastening an advance in force against southeast Silesia, the key to Breslau and Berlin.

While the success of the Russian armies has been so marked in the north, the advance through Hungary is amazingly rapid. The correspondent at Rome learns that the Russian army may take Budapest without having to strike a blow.

London, Oct. 5.—A correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company at Rome says a dispatch has been received there from Bucharest saying that after occupying the principal cities of Bukovina, (a crown land of Austria-Hungary), the Russians have begun an advance on Transylvania. Austria, hoping to defeat this serious menace, has concentrated in the west Carpathians several army corps including those formerly on the Serbian frontier, and a big battle is imminent.

WOMEN MAY BE STRONG

and enjoy life whether in the home or business world if they can keep at bay those ailments peculiar to their sex. If every woman realized how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that simple remedy made from roots and herbs, goes to the root of the trouble and overcomes such symptoms as headache, head aches, nervousness and irritability, they would be healthier, happier and stronger. If you suffer from any form of female ills why don't you try it? It will pay you to do so.—Advertisement.

PETER ROM ALIVE AND WELL.

Man by Same Name Killed in European War and Not Calumet's Peter.

Peter Rom is not dead. Calumet's Peter Rom, reported dead in the Austrian campaign in northern Galicia during the early stages of the European war, a sacrifice to Mars, is very much alive. And more than that, Peter expects to live for a good many years and his many friends hope this expectation is fulfilled.

Recently, among the list of those officially reported as dead by the Austrian government at Vienna, was the name of Peter Rom. Friends in Calumet immediately associated this announcement with Peter Rom of Calumet, formerly a trammer boss at the C. & H. mine, who had been located in Austria for about two years. Consequently the announcement was "prematurely made" that Peter was dead.

Peter's arrival in Calumet last evening, after a twenty-four days' journey from Austria, gave the lie to the reports previously published and included.

dentally seemed to his mourning friends almost as a resurrection. He explained that at the outbreak of the war, the American consul in Vienna advised him to leave the country, he being a naturalized American citizen. The consul made all arrangements for his departure and he has been on the way ever since. The fact that he is not Peter Rom left as dead on the Austro-Ruse battlefield is consoling to his many friends.

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION.

Frank O. Gilbert of Bay City, grand lecturer of the Michigan Masons arrived here today and this evening will conduct a school of instruction for Calumet Lodge No. 271 F. & A. M. in the Union building. There will be a social gathering following the business of the evening.

WITH THE HUNTERS.

Among yesterday's successful hunters were John F. Schroeder, Copper Harbor, 15 birds; Con Wieder, Henry Hochstein, Richard Pollard and Matt

Hirsch, Gratiot Lake, 16 birds; Joseph Carne, Bear Lake, 5 birds; Gene Baudin, Will Lyon and W. W. Vankuren, Gratiot Lake, 31 birds.
